OTHER MATTERS BEFORE THE BOARD

14. Public Comment

Kristine Bunch, 402 Fourth Terrace, spoke to the Board about her concerns about Eric Craig Real Estate moving into the 110 Smithville TIF development.

15. University of Missouri Extension Presentation

Alderman Dan Hartman noted he was the Extension Council Chair for Clay County. He gave a presentation of all the University of Missouri Extension has to offer.

GK Callahan and Lindsay Tarasovic, Engagement Specialists for Clay, Jackson, Platte Counties were present.

16. Request for City Approval of Business Relocation

Megan Mill, Gilmore and Bell presented the request the developer of the 110 Smithville Redevelopment Project. The developer asked for the relocation of the Eric Craig Real Estate Team to 4,100 square feet of the commercial space with a restaurant in the other 4,500 square feet.

Megan explained that there were two provisions to the Redevelopment Agreement. It restricts non-sales tax revenue businesses, and it restricts existing Smithville businesses from locating in the redevelopment area. Megan noted that any changes to these provisions require the City to provide a waiver. She explained that this change could potentially aid the developer in paying off the TIF sooner.

Alderman Hartman moved to approve the letter as presented. Alderman Kobylski seconded the motion.

Ayes – 5, Noes – 1, motion carries. Mayor Boley declared the letter as presented approved.

17. New Business from the Floor

Alderman Kobylski asked the Ordinance for signs be discussed at a future work session.

Mayor Boley asked that staff look into temporary changes to the sign Ordinance during the World Cup.

Cynthia noted that it would be added to a work session in the fall.
